Love is complex and one of the neat things about this book is that the author defines love in many different ways. The primary insight here is that ideally romantic love is not an obsession, not idealistic, and it involves re-defining oneself as a part of a couple.

~~About Love: Reinventing Romance for Our Times by Robert C ...~~

There are a lot of resources in this book and it has also given me many more reading ideas. If you're looking for a book that breaks away all of the mysticism of love yet allows you to reinvent what love is for you, this is the book. It's not touchy feely, it's not self help and it definitely isn't a how to book.
